Nestled in the Swannanoa Valley, this meticulously crafted 3-bed, 2-bath stone home is a testament to artistry of its time. Every stone that comprises this residence was lovingly handpicked from the Craggy Mountains, a tribute to the dedication that went into its construction. Close to Asheville's vibrant nightlife and the charm of Black Mountain, just minutes away. This timeless home seamlessly melds original charm with modern updates. Barnwood ceilings, now painted white, infuse the space with light.

The kitchen and baths have been tastefully updated, blending efficiency with aesthetics. The heart of the home lies in its two grand rock fireplaces, calling you to cozy up on cold winter nights. Beyond the home, enjoy 1.17 ac of trees, flowers, a rock garden, and a creek. In the summertime, sit on the front deck and listen to the crickets, watch the fireflies, gaze at the stars and embrace the mtn views. It's in these moments that you'll truly feel at peace, knowing you're home.
